

Paul's Place Community Kitchen

New building and fit out for Paul's Place in Baltimore, Maryland.

The project includes a new 3 story building of approximately 23,500 sf of floor space. Planning is in the initial stages, but a restaurant and teaching kitchen are slated for the first floor. The second floor will be comprised of office space and a test kitchen while the third floor is currently planned as office space.

Schedule:

Start Construction: Summer 2018
Finish Construction: Winter 2018/2019

Project Manager: Eric Pribula
E-mail: eric.pribula@whiting-turner.com
Project Engineer: Mohamed Abdi
E-mail: mohamed.abdi@whiting-turner.com
Project Engineer: Andrew Seufert
E-mail: andrew.seufert@whiting-turner.com

Project Information:

- Project is located at the corner of Washington Blvd. and W. Cross Street in Baltimore, Maryland
- Paul's Place is using the project to extend their community outreach and support
 - The teaching kitchen and restaurant will be used with the purpose of training and preparing young adults for employment in the food service industry
- Architect and Structural Engineering are being completed by Hoffmann Associates, Inc.
- Interior Designer is Inside Out Designs, Inc.
- Civil Engineer is Richardson Engineering, LLC.

- Bidding will take place in Spring / Summer 2018